FULTONIAN

To a pretty decent guy
though a lousy ping pong player.
Have fun with "Lissa"
Terry

Tom;
I can't begin to write everything
we've done in school together; gym, bowling, tennis, playing cards at the lunch table. I really hope you go on to become a really great accountant like Jim trying to become. May you succeed in everything like I know you will.
Best of Friends Always

Dedication

The yearbook staff is proud to dedicate the 1974 Fultonian to the Foreign Language Department: Mr. Alphonse Nadeau, Advisor, Mrs. Billy Jane Angle, Mr. Jose Azcue, Mrs. Minnie Buske, Miss Lynda Rose Hinman, Miss Janet MacDonald and Mrs. Karleene White.

Mr. Alphonse Nadeau teaches French. He atttended Joliette College of Montreal University and Syracuse University receiving B.A. degrees from both. He has nine children, two of which are at home. He enjoys reading, chess, golf, and woodworking.

Mrs. Billy Jane Angle teaches German along with a class of English 12 this year. She attended Douglas College, where she received an A.B. and has also received 30 hours of graduate work spread from here to Austin, Texas. She has three children, including one attending Purdue University. Her hobbies, when she finds the time for them, are sewing and hand work, cooking fancy dishes, playing the piano, and listening to good music.

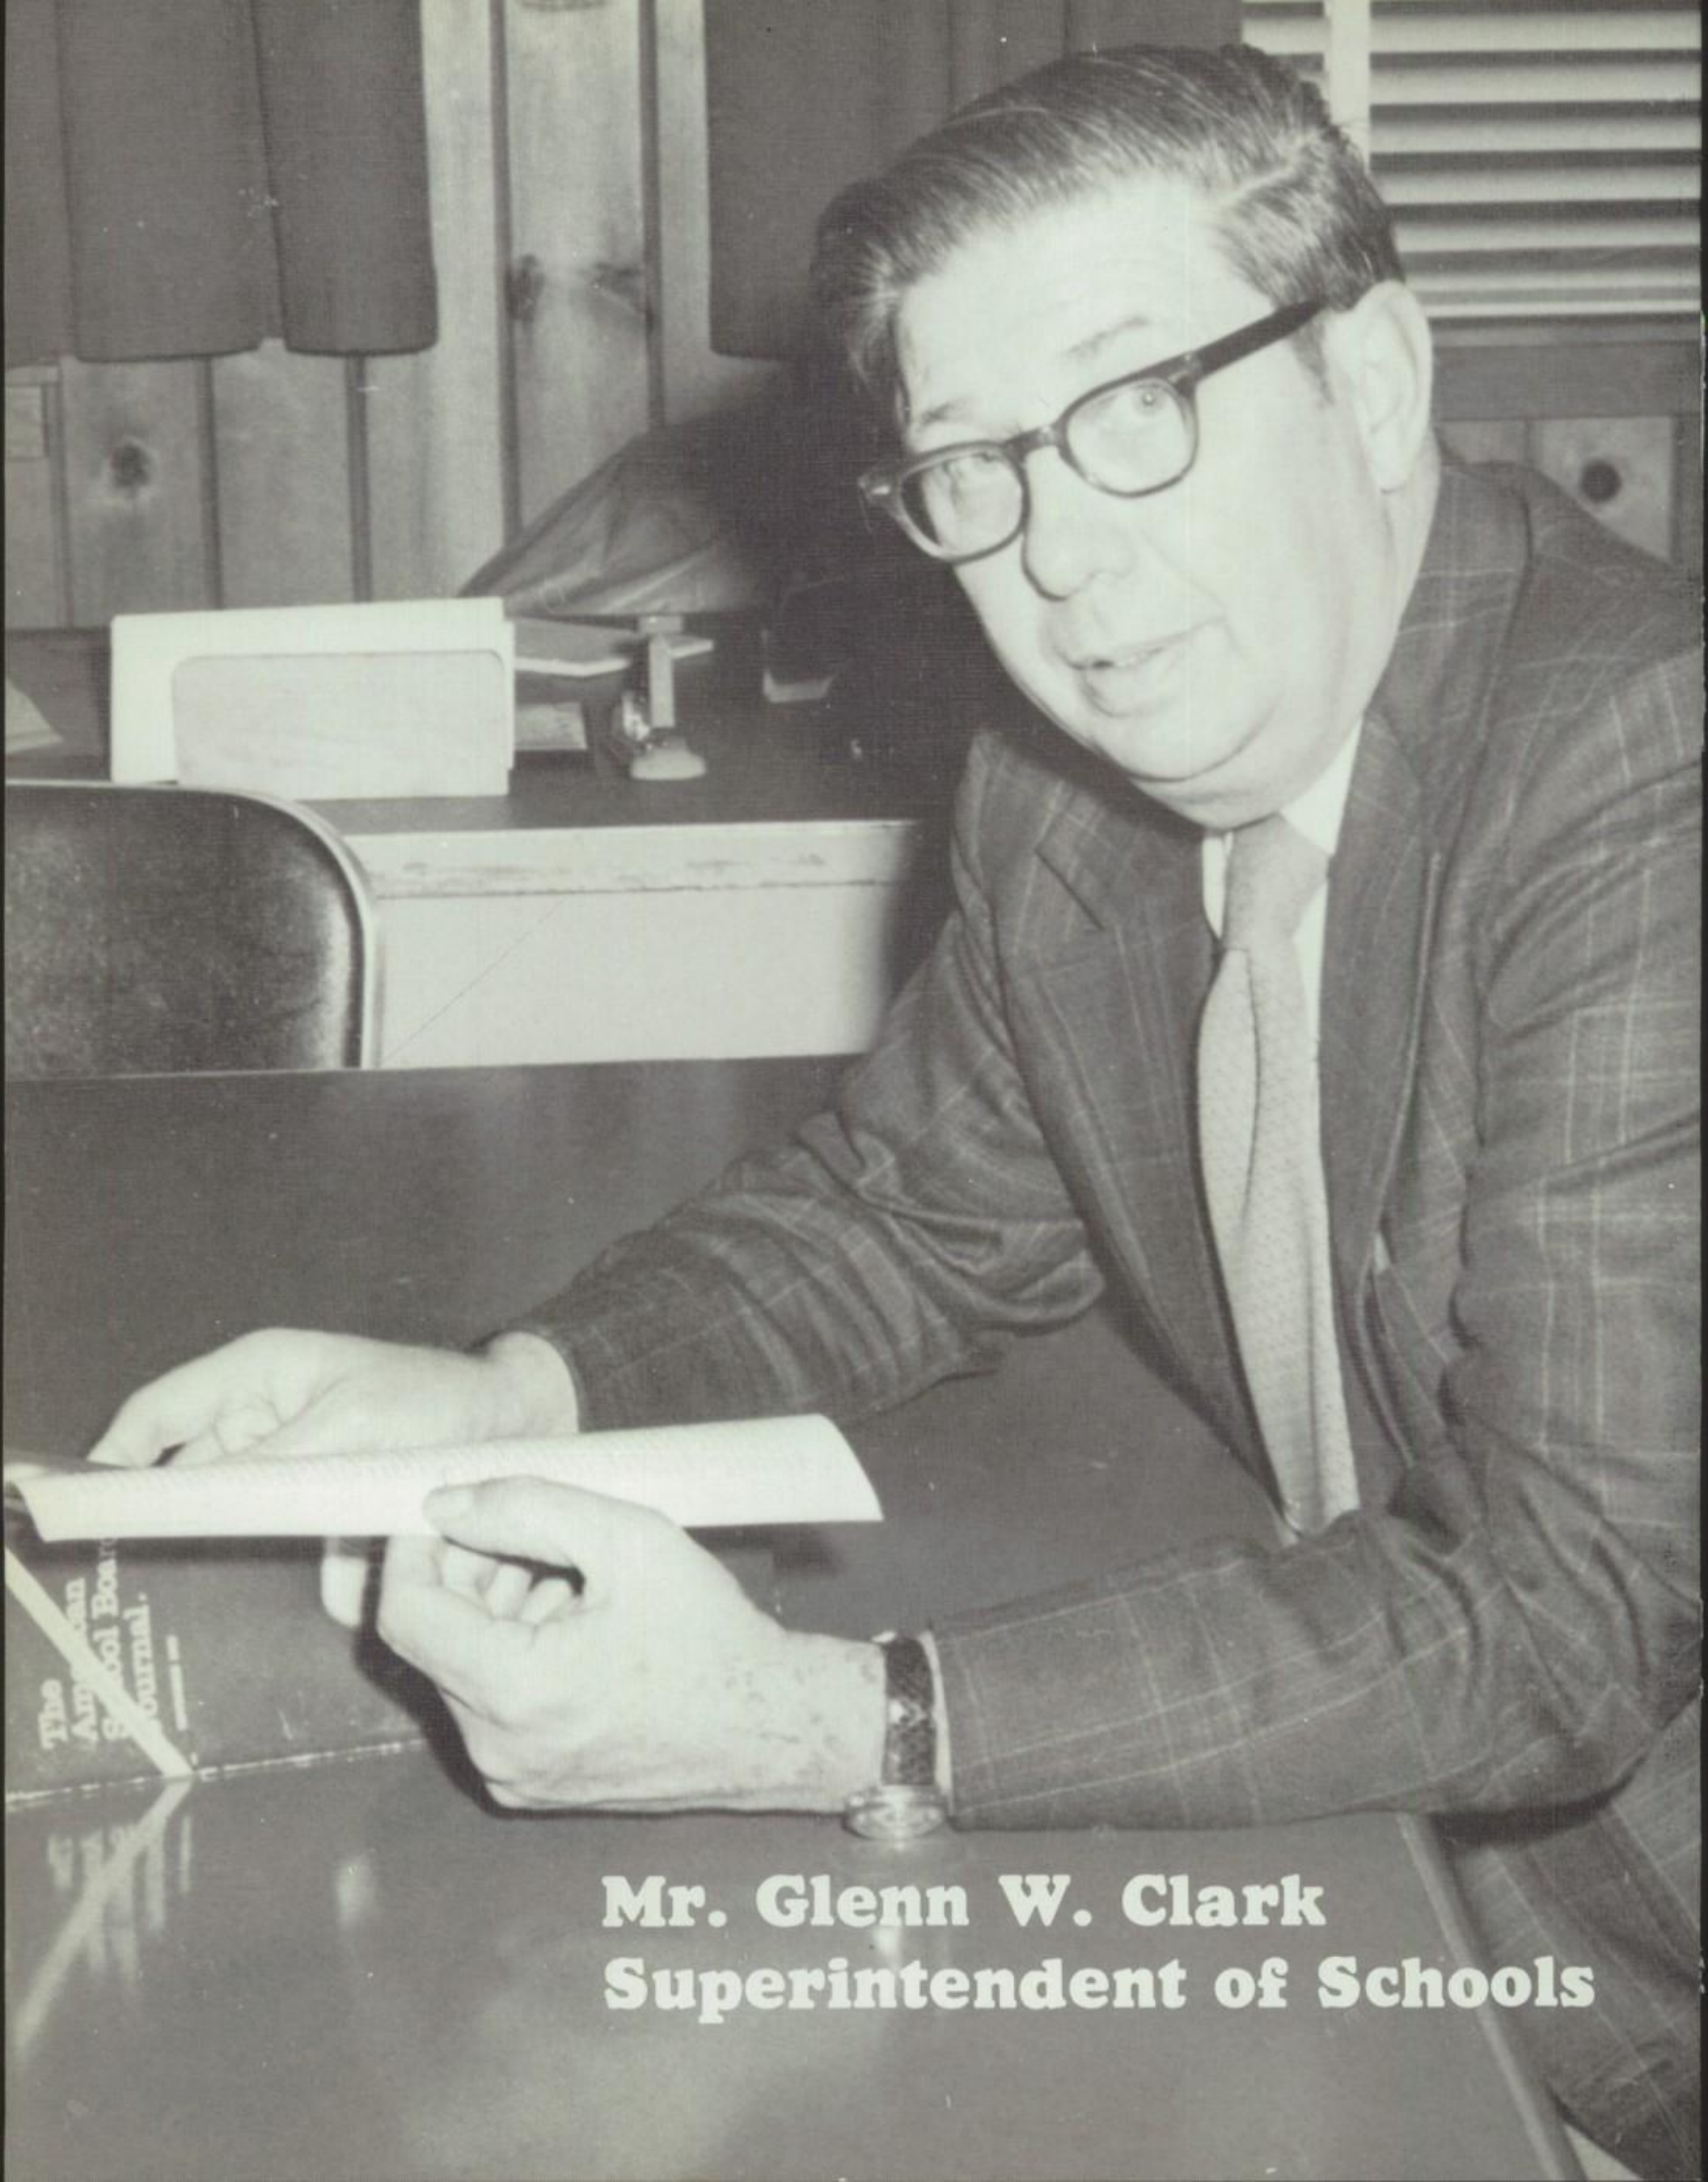
Mr. Jose Azcue teaches Music and Spanish along with directing the Mixed Chorus, Girls Chorus, and Varsity Choir and the G.R.B. He attended San Sebastian Conservatory where he later became an instructor. He has four children. He teaches Piano at his home and plays the organ and directs the Choir at Immaculate Conception Church in Fulton.

Mrs. Minnie E. Buske teaches Latin and English. She graduated from State College at Albany with a B.A. degree. She lives at R D 6 Johnson Road, Oswego NY. She purchased an old home with daughter, son-in-law and grandson. She enjoys remodeling and redecorating their old home, fishing especially in the creek which flows through their back yard, or anywhere she can find a puddle of water. She also enjoys gardening and is all wrapped up in her grandson Robbie. Expecting a second grandchild in early June.

Miss Lynda Rose Hinman teaches Spanish. She attended Bethany Nazarene College in Oklahoma where she received an A.B. in Spanish. Her hobbies include piano and biking. She lives alone in Fulton but is soon to be wed.

Miss Janet MacDonald teaches French. She attended Albany State Teachers College, where she received an M.A. Some of her hobbies include reading, collecting woodcarvings (especially of birds), camping, and traveling.

Mrs. Karlene White teaches Spanish. She attended Lake Erie College, where she received an A.B. and Western Reserve University where she received an M.A. Mrs. White, her husband, who is also a teacher, her son Jeffrey, and their collie Boots and Calico Cat Chico live just outside of Fulton. She enjoys music.

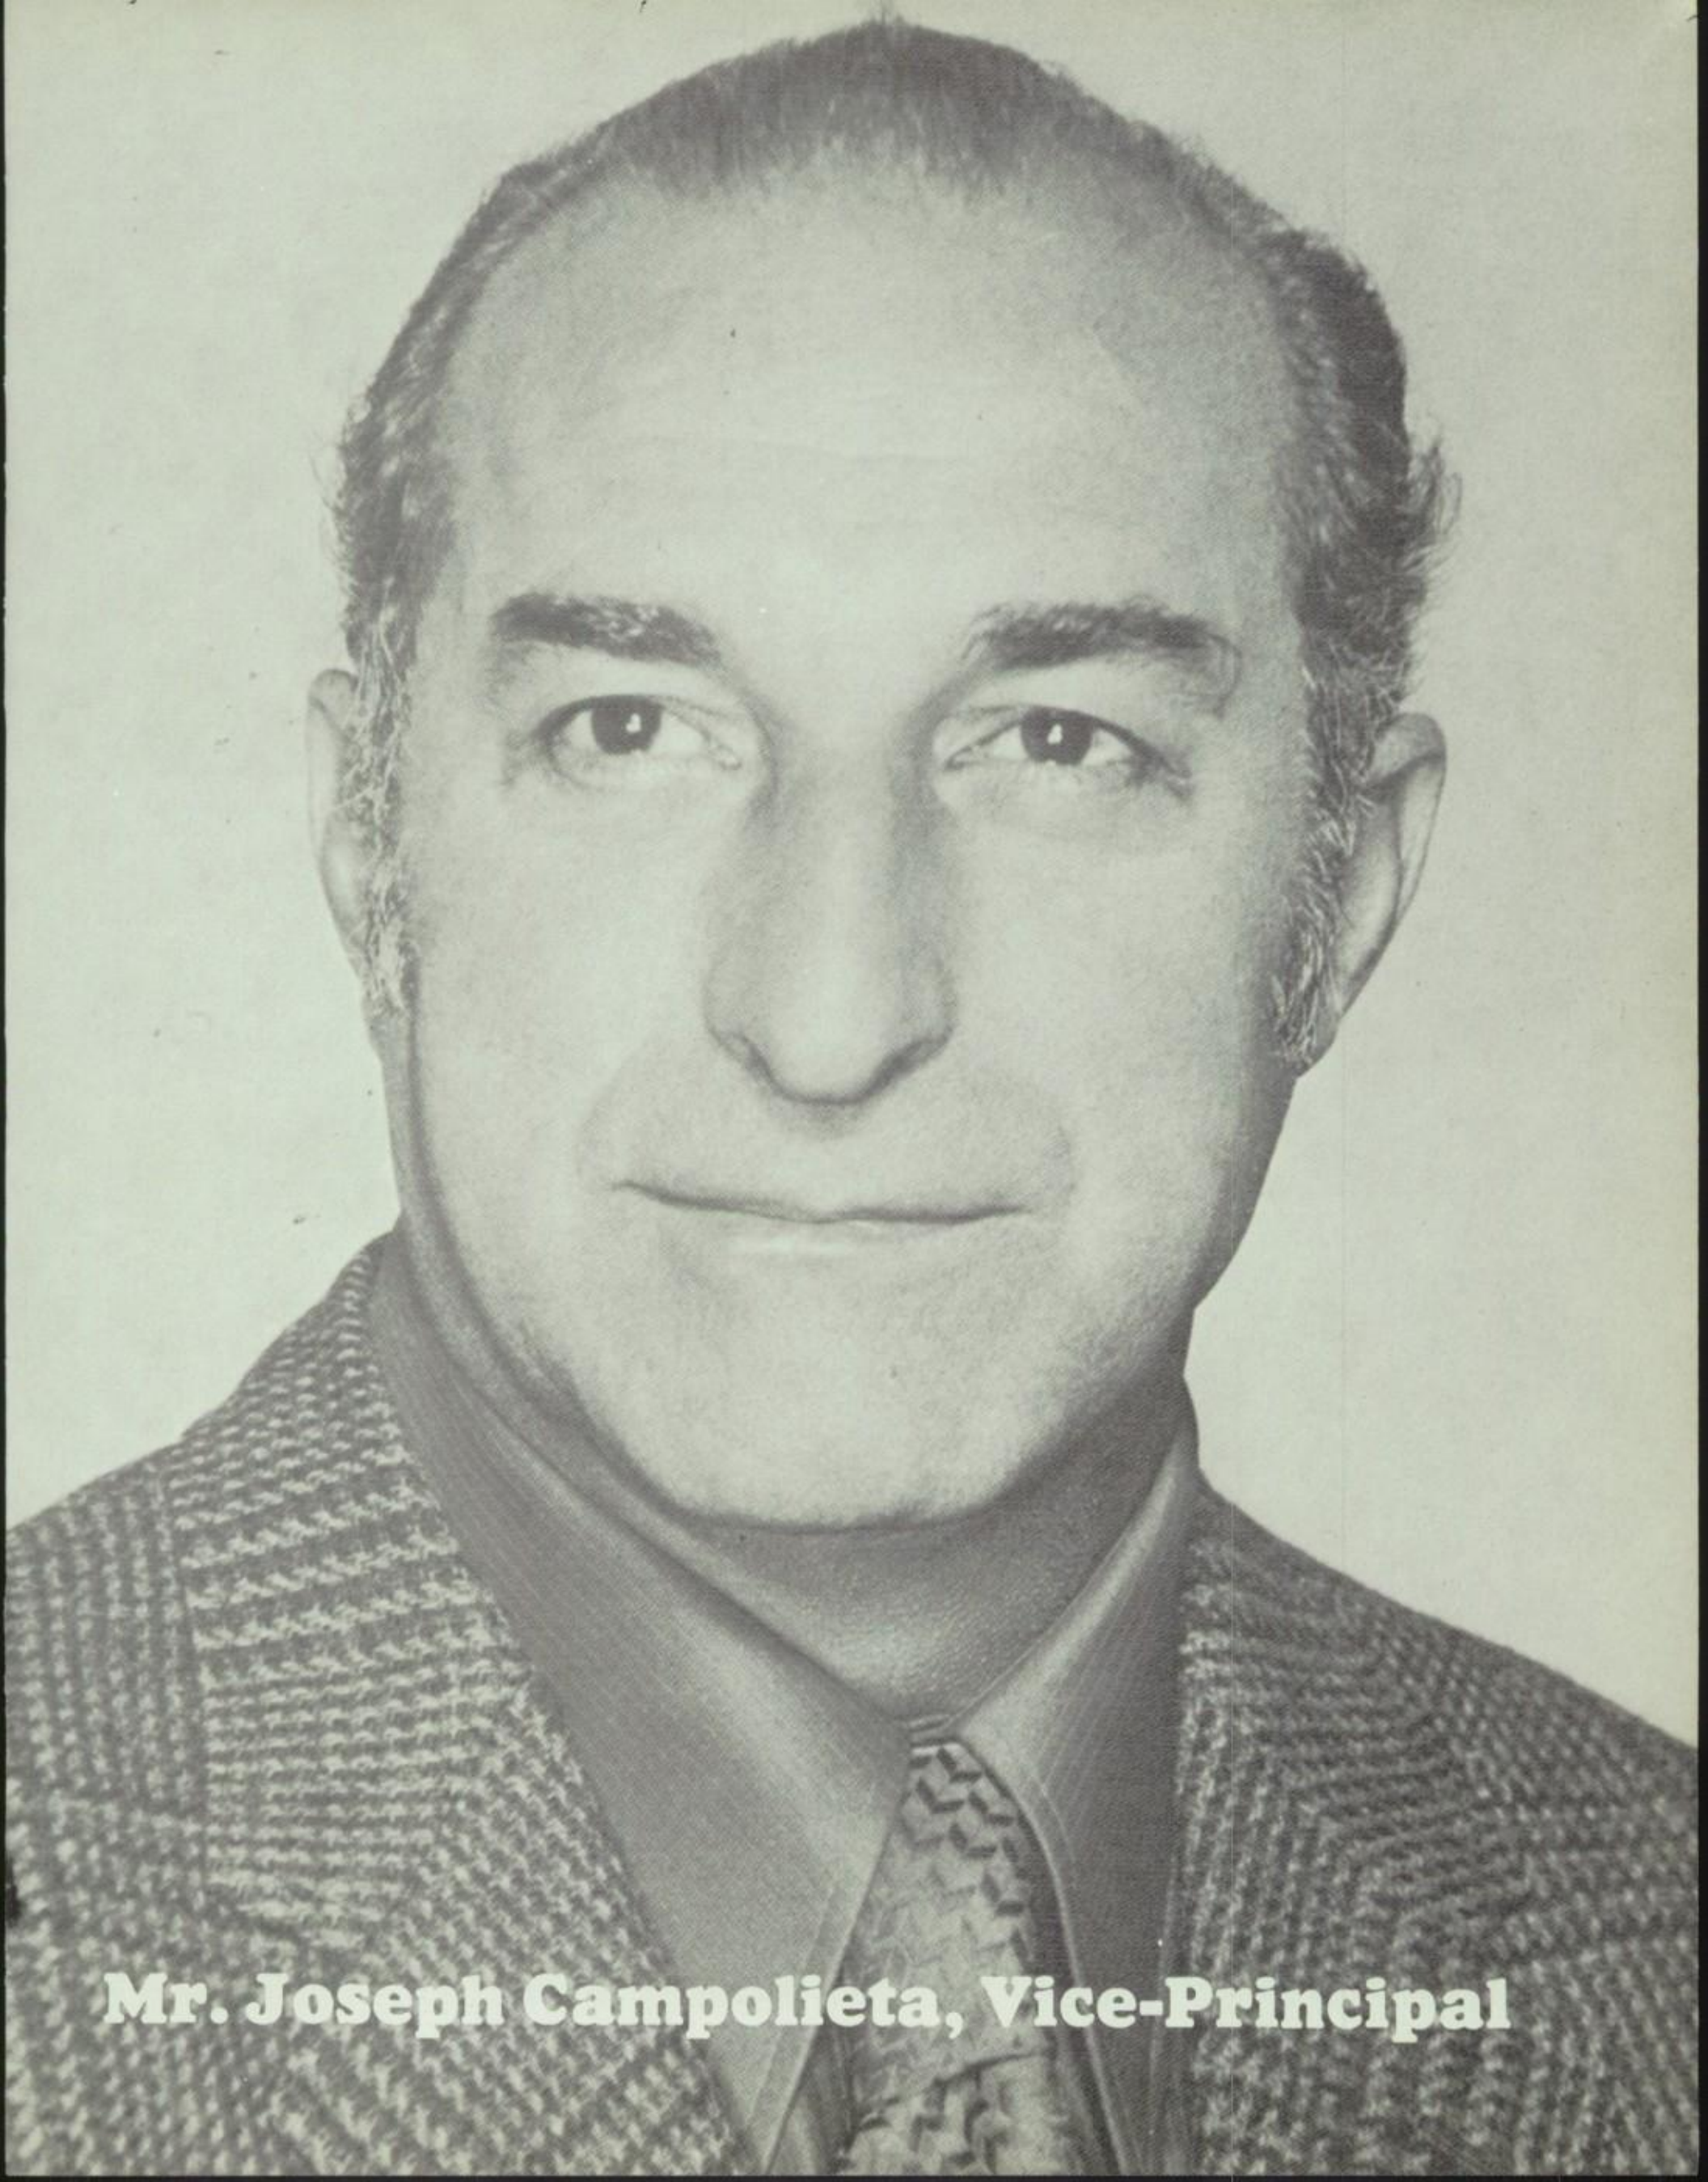


Mr. Glenn W. Clark
Superintendent of Schools

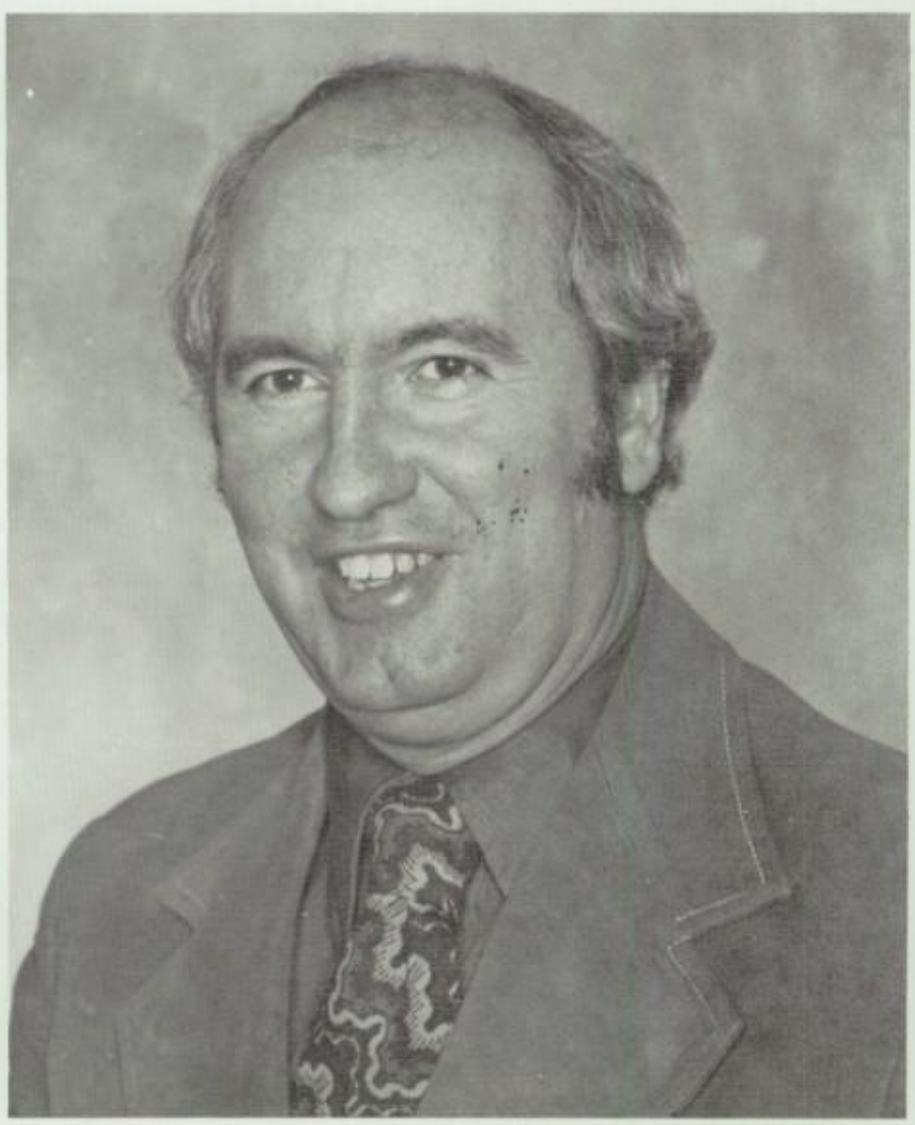
Administration

The old Fourth Street School lodges the offices of the Board of Education. The six members of the Board are dedicated citizens of Fulton. Through monthly meetings, they decide the policies by which the school system must abide. The members of the Fulton Board of Education are: John Johnson, President; Floyd Boynton, Robert Bymaster, Kenneth Darling, Leon Stuber, Judy Geitner, and Eugene Tracy.

Mr. Carl Rowland, Principal



Mr. Joseph Campolieta, Vice-Principal



Mr. Peluso is head of Guidance, and his expert advice is very useful in the search for college and job opportunities. Mr. George Curran, Mr. Charles Geers, Mrs. Barbara Pisano and Mrs. Ellen Vanosdall all work to help the students of this school find a direction in life, their careers. Future plans are influenced by these counselors' opinions and advice. The counselors can use their own expertise in counseling each individual student to their fullest capacity. Each student owes his gratitude to these counselors for the devoted efforts in helping him with problems, whether they are personal, vocational, or educational.

1974 Senior Class History

The end of High School is here for us, but the memories will linger on. It seemed that only yesterday we were Freshmen, but now we're Seniors with a goal in life that we are striving to reach.

In September of 1970 we were "Frosh" at the bottom of the ladder. The school was new to us and we were all confused but we tried not to show it. We had many ideas and plans to build on but nothing was definite. Our officers were: President-Tim Trepasso, Vice President-Kathy Andrews, Secretary-Linda Bogaczyk, Treasurer-JoAnn Puglia, and Sergeant At Arms-Mary Jean McVey. Mr. Charles Ottman was our advisor.

We all felt a feeling of importance when we entered our Sophomore year. We held car washes, bake sales, and dances for some of our projects. Our first big task was to put on the Freshman frolic and it was a success. Most of our profits were going to go towards the dance of our high school years, which wasn't far away. Our Sophomore class officers were: President-Kathy Andrews, Vice President-Barb Johnston, Secretary-Diane Mirabito, Treasurer-Colleen Samuels, and Sergeant at Arms-Kurt Knight. Our class advisor was Mr. Fiordamalva. Next, a Junior, an upperclassman. We continued our projects and started on the construction of the Prom.

One of the events before the Prom was the annual Teacher Talent Show. Everyone that attended had a lot of laughs and considered it successful. It took a lot of hard work and time but the Prom was deemed a success. The Prom theme was "Long Ago Yesterday" and Lynn Wilcox was the Prom Queen. Our Junior class officers were, President-Barb Johnston, Vice President-Linda Bogaczyk, Secretary-Martha Allerton, Treasurer-Donna West. Mr. Fiordamalva was our Junior class advisor.

Now we're Seniors with the future to look upon. It took us four years to get here, but it seems like we were just starting only yesterday. The last year is just as active as any of the others. The only real difference in being a Senior is that you know that you won't be coming back after you graduate. Homecoming and its festivities are a trademark of the Senior year. This years homecoming Queen was JoAnn Puglia and Chief Red Raiders were O'Dell Baskerville and Tim Trepasso. You finish off your high School days with graduation. There is the thought of college or an occupation. Whatever is decided, we all try to contribute something. We are tomorrows future, the society of today and the graduates of the past. We have reached the end of our journey-awaiting the start of another day.

Class Wills

Gene Tracy leaves Jody to Kevin, Dickie, or whoever meets her eye.

Lynne Wilcox and Cindy Bush leave Mr. Maurer to any Junior who dares to sit in the Cafeteria during Senior Lounger and Melissa Vaughn their dancing fork.

Sue and Sandi give back all the favors to Dave and Dian that they ever did for them.

Joe Tindall leaves one bottle of Wesson oil to Mark Heppell hoping that next time he'll think twice before chugging it down because he thought it was whisky.

Brenda Bateman leaves the green bugs on the tramp to anyone who promises not to step on them.

Chris Cali leaves Skinamoto all the screaches in the world.

Donna Vincent leaves Sandy Wooding to look after her little brother when she's not around.

Cecelia Vescio leaves a bag of smashed potato chips to Mr. Bouchard.

Leah Younis and Diane Barbagallo leave Pat Chalone her own private senior lounges.

Marion Wilson leaves the gate to the tennis courts open after 9 AM for Susie Turner.

Ed Heagerty leaves Mr. Rowland the Pleasant thoughts of Retirement!

Mary Sheldon leaves Leanne Rogers to find someone else to "drag" with.

Carol Allen, Cindy Palamar, Paula Merkley, and Renee Parsons leave Gretchen Flick a new bra so she doesn't have to bring an extra one to Field Hockey Practice.

Debbie Baldwin leaves Kim one more year at G. Ray Bodley if she can take it.

Debbie Stoughtenger leaves hoping that the good example that she set for Nina Turner has helped.

Cindy Bush leaves Pats Long one snowball, one patch, one mitten, one egg and cat de-hairer.

Teresa Phillips leaves Billie Ann Natoli, Laurie Carter, Sue Jaffey, and Cindy Wolski, her gymwear.

Jim Myers leaves all the "Little" jokes about Munchkinland to Rhoda Kio.

Kevin Bellinger leaves his speeding tickets to Steve Ward if he can afford to pay the Fines.

Mrs. Angle's English Class leaves her to her German Class!!!

Karen Lanzafame leaves Mr. Root and his ulcers in Peace.

The Senior girls on Varsity Swim Team leave Mr. Kaler a golden Whistle.

Mr. Sohoski's 1st Semester 9th bell class leaves him a class after school so he won't be lonely.

The Bonfire Boys leave with the Frigidaire Five in hopes of defrosting their ice boxes.

Lynn Thornber leaves Mr. Potter to A. J. Terranova and all others who can enjoy a good track party.

Bill Clark, Candy Broadwell, and Diane Woeller and Chet Ford leave all of Ms. Beardsley's timers, sewing machines, manikins and tea pots to good ole Mr. Root.

Ralph Thompson leaves the tank to anyone who can keep it running and afford the gas.

Ski Club and G.A.A.

The girls Athletic Association is organized to give interested girls an opportunity to pursue their talents in sports. Through practice and participation they develope skills that will carry over in to their adult recreational life. A strong physical education program is the key to good health and development of character. The aims of this group are: to stress good sportsmanship, to promote good citizenship and healthful living; and to provide an opportunity for girls to earn an athletic award. Any girl is eligible for membership providing she maintains a passing average. Participation in activities sponsored by the G.A.A. can result in earning a varsity letter. Awards won by girls working throughout the year are presented at the awards assembly in June. This year there are 222 members: L. Weske, N. Galletta, L. Carter, P. Chalone, K. Sperback, D. Parsons, D. Jasiak, M. Gadziala, K. Smith, D. Engle, S. McNulty, L. Wheeler, C. Melita, C. Carter, D. Bartlett, T. Allen, S. Foley, D. Grassi, M. Dings, G. Flick, C. Allen, R. Parsons, C. Aofrate, H. Tennis

Coached by Mr. Devitt are: N. Devitt, P. Pollard, T. Tassell, J. Byers, M. McMullen, S. Kilmer, V. Downs, P. Tassell, L. Tondeur, W. LaRose, C. Camp, K. Siebers, J. Cherillo, V. Vescio, S. The Green Wave continued to dominate girls Varsity tennis in Central New York in 1973. Despite the loss of two Regional finalists in 1972, the Green Wave won seven, tied one and lost only once in Onondaga County League Competition. Gathering momentum as the new players become more seasoned, The Green Wave swept all five individual Titles at the New York State Regional Tennis Championships in Water Town. They rolled on, winning second place team honors in competition with twenty-nine high schools competing in the State section III championships. Four members of the Green Wave Net gang made it to the finals of the 1973 all County tennis classic of Central New York. Nancy Devitt, Terri Tassall, Lisa Tondeur and Patty Tassall all received second place ribbons for their efforts. In two seasons the Bodley High girls Varsity tennis team has established itself as one of the strongest High School tennis Teams in Central New York and with a Team composed mainly of sophomores and Juniors, next year should see the Green Wave roll even higher.
